Two magnificent villas with private infinity pools are currently under construction in the well-sought-after area of Pinar de Campoverde. This mature residential zone boasts a wide variety of bars, shops and restaurants nearby. You can reach the Lo Romero golf resort and the lively town of Pilar de la Horadada in just a short drive. The stunning villa features a private swimming pool, a finished garden with an irrigation system, complete bathrooms with shower screens, pre-installation of air conditioning, kitchen appliances, a rooftop solarium and lighting throughout the house. The property includes a bright and spacious open-plan lounge with patio doors that lead out into the garden, complete with a private infinity swimming pool, dining area, and a modern kitchen with a feature island and fitted appliances including oven, hob, extractor, fridge/freezer, dishwasher and microwave. There is also a separate utility room with a washing machine. T...
